In representing and exemplifying Virginia Commonwealth University’s mission to advance knowledge and student success, the members of the Board of Visitors (BOV) are in the utmost position of trust. This position of trust is inherently accompanied by the highest standards in leadership, responsibility, accountability, and governing authority during service. Incumbent upon BOV members is the modeling and promotion of, and contribution to, an organizational culture of respect, honesty, excellence, trust, accountability and responsibility, stewardship and compliance with all applicable laws, regulations and university policies during service to the public through serving VCU.

At VCU, expectations are set high in all endeavors and success is obtained in conjunction with the Visitors’ support and commitment to integrity. The ethical expectations set for the Visitors further illustrate commitments to one another, our university community and the citizens of Virginia, all of whom have entrusted the Visitors to act ethically in all dealings.

The expectations set forth herein strongly resemble those ethical standards and expectations incumbent on all VCU employees and serve as a reminder of the obligations of, and challenges in, holding such a position of trust.

Members of the Board of Visitors bring a varied breadth of experiences, both professionally and personally, and all share in the commitment of supporting an environment of uncompromising integrity and ethical conduct. These ethical expectations are the foundation for all decisions and actions during service to VCU.

As representatives of our institution, may all Visitors’ actions be guided by these principles and values:

Respect: We will respect individuals, diversity, and the rights of others.
Honesty: We will act and communicate honestly and candidly.  We will not mislead others.
Excellence: We will strive for excellence in all that we do.
Responsibility and Accountability: We will be responsible and accountable for our decisions and actions.
Stewardship: We will be good stewards of the resources entrusted to the university.
Compliance: We will understand and comply with the codes, laws, regulations, policies and procedures that govern our university activities.

Further, during service, the Board of Visitors affirms the recognitions that:
• All decisions and actions reflect upon the reputation of the university; and therefore, the commitment to upholding these expectations through our actions sustains, even when confronted by the challenges of personal, professional, social or economic pressures;
• In maintaining the duties of care, loyalty, obedience and disclosure, all free from undue influences and thereby protecting VCU from such influences, requires the extension of goodwill to every member and affiliate of the university community; and
• Decisions made and actions undertaken by the BOV are done so as a board and not as individuals, refraining from any requests of the President, faculty or staff for special treatment, including admissions, employment and contracts for business.

Inconsistencies with these expectations will be addressed in accordance with The Bylaws and the Procedures Section outlined herein.
